DesignRush Global Student Competition
Info Sheet

DesignRush invites you to a creative competition that recognizes emerging talents, showcasing students' designs to the leading global agencies and prospective employers.

The Global Student Competition invites universities to submit their best multimedia student designs.

HOW IT WORKS

- The school must nominate at least 1 currently enrolled student by submitting an application with the artwork for Multimedia Design.

- Our panel will select the top multimedia designs and notify the successful applicants by the end of July.

- Student who wins the overall competition will be awarded with one-month unpaid internship.

- Participating universities must post a link to DesignRush on their website to qualify.

WHY NOMINATE YOUR STUDENTS

- VISIBILITY – The successful projects will be featured on DesignRush.com - a website with over 290,000 monthly visitors, most of whom are senior level executives in agencies and corporations.

- GLOBAL MEDIA COVERAGE - Press releases picked up by over 100 media outlets such as Yahoo! Finance, Business Insider, SODP, One News Page, etc.

- PROMOTION TO DESIGN AGENCIES - Newsletters featuring the students and their designs will be sent out to 9,000 industry professionals.
